Teamwork makes the dream work — join our team!

Nurse, Outreach
Job Location: Portland, Maine

Our Story
At Citra Health Solutions, we are a team of innovators that equip our healthcare partners with the tools to stay focused on patient experience and engagement while delivering the very best in quality coordinated care, improved population health management, and increased efficiency to reduce costs and promote financial success.

Position Summary
Citra is looking for LPN’s, Graduates, Retired, Registered Nurses to conduct outreach calls to doctor offices. This is a great opportunity to work with a team helping doctor’s make a smooth network participation transition.

Part time and full time hours available, 30-40 hours per week ideal
Operating Hours: Monday-Friday 10am-9pm
Job Type: Temporary, opportunity exists for exceptional candidates

Qualifications
- Candidates must have graduated from nursing school (LPN, Associates Degree, Diploma, BSN).
- Customer service orientation. Organized, able to set priorities and work effectively under pressure with minimum supervision. Works well as a team member.
- Must have or quickly develop an ability to think, talk, and type simultaneously while utilizing excellent telephone communication skills and customer focused interpersonal relationship skills.
- Strong PC skills, proficiency in typing, and comfort with Windows Operating Systems.
Physical Requirements

☑ Sedentary work requiring manual dexterity with repetitive motions of wrists, hands, and fingers.
☑ Vision sufficiently correctable to work with a computer monitor.
☑ Hearing sufficiently correctable to receive detailed information through oral telephone communication.